

IGF Updates

1) IGF Website

- Database

IGF has developed and published a database that collects and organizes all data regarding IGF competitions and players. The database contains information from the last 10 years in following events:

- World Amateur Go Championship (2006 – 2015)
- World Mind Sports Games (2008, 2012)
- SportAccord World Mind Games (20011 – 2013)
- World Students Go Oza (2011 – 2015)
- Asian Indoor & Martial Arts Games (2013)
- IMSA Elite Mind Games (2016)

The database is open to public and can be found on IGF's website:

<http://www.igfdb.intergofed.org/>

- Members' Documents

IGF has published the following documents on the website for the convenience of all members.

- IGF Membership introduction & guideline
- IGF Endorsement guideline
- IGF Code of Ethics
- All relevant documents and links on doping tests

2) Go Populations Survey

IGF conducted a comprehensive survey on Go population around the world. The survey was carried from Jan. 15 to Feb. 27, 2016 and total 55 countries and territories participated in the survey. The final report of the survey is attached at the end.